IFA Representation

Nobody works harder to improve the income and conditions for Irish farm families

IFA has spent over 50 years protecting and defending the interests of Irish farmers and their families. Our record of work and delivery speaks for itself and IFA is respected both at home and in Europe as the voice of Irish farmers.

The Association is determined to build upon this record of delivery for Irish farmers. IFA's campaigns across all sectors and commodities are geared-up to accomplish our mission – to improve the incomes and conditions of all farm families.

In addition to effective representation, your IFA Membership provides you with valuable back-up, support and services and the opportunity to make real savings on and off the farm.
